

Tracy Boyle

Director of Operations

Biography

Tracy is a seasoned operations leader and human resources specialist, currently serving as director of operations at Torrey Advisory Group. With over 35 years of experience, including her role as chief people officer, director of boards and office operations at the International Dairy Foods Association, Tracy has a proven track record of driving organizational success. She has excelled in creating strategic people programs, overseeing board operations, and managing high-impact meetings.

A Maryland native and graduate of Towson State University with a degree in business, Tracy is known for her collaborative leadership and ability to align people strategies with business goals.

Past Roles

Chief People Officer and Director of Boards and Office Operations, International Dairy Foods Association

Selected Expertise

- Office Operations
- Executive Office
- Association Management/Meetings
- Employee Relations